

Cleveland, February 15, 2017 — FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Interfaith Service of Prayer
Prayers for Peace
President's Day
Monday, February 20
7:00 pm
The Church of the Covenant

On President's Day the Church of the Covenant will host an interfaith prayer service to pray for our leaders and our nation. We will open our sanctuary to people of any faith as we come together in prayer and worship.

Our prayers for reconciliation, mercy, justice, and wisdom will be led by Rabbi Roger Klein, The Temple-Tifereth Israel; Ramez Islambouli, the Muslim Student Association, CWRU; Reverend Joe Cherry, Unitarian Universalist Society of Cleveland; and the Reverends Amy Starr Redwine and Melanie Marsh Baum, the Church of the Covenant.

The Church of the Covenant is a diverse 400-member congregation centered in the vibrant cultural center of Cleveland's University Circle since 1911.

Convinced of God's grace, the Church of the Covenant seeks to:

Be a welcoming spiritual home,
Live God's inclusive love,
Express Christ's compassion,
Do justice in the world.

Covenant's sanctuary is open Monday through Friday,
