Why Participate in the Auction?

The Harvest Auction brings us together for an evening of good company, shared experiences, and support for our congregation.

- Gather with friends and neighbors: Enjoy refreshments, browse the offerings, and spend time together. Friends and guests are welcome!
- Make connections that last: Bid on dinners, outings, classes, and other experiences that bring people together throughout the year.
- Support UUCC: Auction proceeds help fund our congregation's programs and operations. Our fundraising goal this year is $10,000.

Whether you bid on a favorite item, reserve a place at an event, or try your luck in the raffle, thank you for being part of the evening. Bid generously—your support makes a difference!

Auction Activities:

Silent Auction

Bidding is easier this year! Each Silent Auction bid sheet has preprinted amounts, beginning with the starting bid and increasing by the required minimum raise. Write your bidder number beside the next available amount. No arithmetic required! Check back before the table closes; you can bid again if someone has moved ahead of you.

For items with more than one offering, each price level has multiple lines—one for each available offering. The early bidder has priority at a bid level.

Ask an Auction Team volunteer if you have questions.

Set Price

No bidding needed! These items and events are available at a set price, with a limited number of items or places. Write your bidder number on the sign-up sheet to claim an available offering. Sign-ups are first come, first served, until all offerings are taken. You'll receive your item or the event details at checkout.

Bid & Bump

A little strategy, a little suspense, and plenty of friendly competition! Bid & Bump events—usually dinners or other gatherings—have a limited number of places available.

1. Write your bidder number and bid amount on a slip of paper and add it to the bidding line. Bids are arranged from highest to lowest, with a marker showing which bids are currently in the winning zone. A higher bid can bump someone out of that zone, so keep an eye on your place!
2. When bidding closes, the people in the winning zone have secured their places at the event.
3. New to Bid & Bump? Auction volunteers will be happy to show you how it works.

Raffle

Raffle tickets will be sold from 5:00 to 6:45 PM: $1 for one ticket, $5 for six, or $20 for an arm's (or leg's!) length of tickets. Drop your tickets into the jar for each prize you hope to win. Winners announced during the entertainment.

Wine Grab

Try your luck with the Wine Grab! For $20, draw a playing card and take home the mystery bottle that matches it. Every card wins, and bottles are valued from $20 to $65. Will your surprise be red, white, or sparkling?

Beer Pull

For $5, choose a mystery bottle or can from the Beer Pull. Every pull wins! Discover a mix of beer styles, from local craft brews to familiar favorites, with perhaps a cider in the mix.

After the Auction

- Enjoy the entertainment from 7:00 to 8:00 PM while the Auction Team prepares invoices
- At 8:00 PM, check for an email with your invoice and pay online by Zelle (put "2026 Auction" in the memo line for Zelle or checks)
- Go to Fellowship Hall to checkout if you are paying by cash or check
- Proceed to the pickup table to show your payment and collect your items

Donors will receive an email listing their donations and the winning bidders. Thank you to everyone who donated, volunteered, bid, and helped make the evening possible!
